

CITE DESIGN

LANDSCAPE DESIGNER JOB DESCRIPTION

Cite Design is seeking a full-time, entry-level landscape designer to join our team. We are looking for an enthusiastic, design-minded collaborator who represents the vision and passion of our team. The ideal candidate will have a bachelor's or master's degree in Landscape Architecture and will perform a broad range of tasks.

Responsibilities

- Produce project work – including but not limited to:
 - Contribute to all aspects of project development including research & site analyses, conceptual design, design refinement, renderings, construction documents, technical details, and construction administration
 - Prepare and assemble conceptual plans and presentation graphics, with an emphasis on 3D graphic models
- Support project coordination by assisting with communication between clients and consultants
- Attend client and consultant meetings and presentations
- Maintain files and project organization – including taking detailed meeting notes and proper storage of digital and physical project assets
- Develop work schedule – including developing weekly work schedule and daily time tracking
- Maintain code fluency
- Assist Senior Designer with other project related tasks

Qualifications

- Degree in Landscape Architecture (undergraduate or graduate)
- Excellent design skills and aesthetic sensibilities
- Strong written and graphic communication skills
- Ability to render ideas both digitally and by hand
- Proficiency in AutoCAD, Adobe Creative Cloud apps, with emphasis on SketchUp (or other 3D)

While not required, the following qualifications are desired:

- Experience preparing landscape construction documents and specifications
- Basic knowledge of horticulture, site sustainability, and other technical knowledge
- 1-3 years experience in the field of landscape architecture
