

JOSEPH FIOLA

Helping to Build a Successful Grape and Wine Industry - The UME Viticulture and Enology Program

The Maryland wine industry continues to grow in acreage and improve and quality and diversity of its products. This seminar will overview of the support provided to new and established growers by the UME Viticulture and Enology program, including research and demonstrations, educational events, website, newsletters, and a Sustainable Workbook.

Spring 2021 PSLA

LECTURE

SERIES

February 8, 2021

SEMINAR takes place live via

UMD Zoom

Time:

12PM

Dr. Fiola has 30+ years of experience in viticulture and small fruit extension and research. His program concentrates on proper establishment, maximizing fruit and wine quality, cultivar testing, and small-batch winemaking. He has a comprehensive website, distributes a "Timely Viticulture" newsletter, and has published a workbook on Sustainable Viticulture.