The Maryland wine industry continues to grow in acreage and improve and quality and diversity of its products. This seminar will overview of the support provided to new and established growers by the UME Viticulture and Enology program, including research and demonstrations, educational events, website, newsletters, and a Sustainable Workbook.