Using Virtual Reality to Promote Active Learning in Agriculture

This seminar will provide an overview of immersive technology and guide participants through the design and development of 360-virtual reality experiences to engage students in the learning process. Emphasis will be placed on low-cost solutions for creating immersive experiences.